Join us in celebration of our vibrant culture and community at a gathering that's for us and by us. Come out in support of one another while we also support black-owned businesses and organizations. There will be entertainment, education, and food that feeds the soul for the eldest to the youngest in attendance. As we take up space know that there are accommodations and a safe space for everyone: Disabled and LGBTQ+ included. Bring your blanket or lawn chairs, but more importantly bring your love and positive energy!
